BRANN & ISAACSON
ATTORNEYS AND COUNSELORS AT LAW

Eamonn Hart named Brann & Isaacson Partner

Maine firm elevates accomplished young litigator with growing practice

LEWISTON, Maine (September 25, 2024) – Brann & Isaacson, a Maine-based law firm founded in the 1920s with offices in Lewiston and Portland, is pleased to name Attorney Eamonn Hart as a Partner. Hart has earned the trust of clients and peers alike through a strong track record of creative, responsive, and effective legal advice navigating challenging cases.

Since joining the firm in 2018, Hart has provided general, commercial, and trust & estate litigation counsel to businesses and families throughout Maine and beyond—with a growing recognition for his work in complex privacy litigation in courts throughout the United States. Locally, he has represented a fledgling business whose competitors tried to shut down operations before it even opened its doors, family members in long-term disputes over disposition of assets, and partners in complex business breakup matters. Nationally, he has handled bet-the-company privacy litigation for cutting-edge marketing startups and represented established businesses—including fortune 500 companies—in managing litigation risk. He regularly appears before state and federal trial and appellate courts both within Maine and nationwide. In the spirit of public service, he regularly accepts appointments from the United States Court of Appeals for the First Circuit to represent individuals in appellate matters who cannot afford counsel.

Partner David Bertoni, who works closely with Hart, shared: “Eamonn is an invaluable member of the Brann & Isaacson team. He has a passion for practicing law, a strong analytical mind, and, most importantly, he is a thoughtful, modest, and genuine person with whom it’s a pleasure to work. We look forward to many fun and interesting years working together to build upon and honor the firm’s unique legacy of professional excellence, integrity, and Maine values.”

Hart received his J.D. from the University of Chicago Law School, graduating with high honors in 2016. At the University of Chicago, he was the Executive Topics & Comments Editor for the University of Chicago Law Review and 2016 Hinton Moot Court Champion. Before joining Brann & Isaacson, Hart clerked for federal judges in the United States District Court for the Northern District of Illinois and the United States Court of Appeals for the First Circuit. He has a bachelor's in government and legal studies from Bowdoin College.

“I am thrilled to be a Partner at a firm that provides quality, forward thinking representation to all its clients, big and small,” Hart said. “Working with the wide array of talented Brann & Isaacson partners has provided me with incredible opportunities for professional growth, and I look forward to many more years of building and maintaining Brann & Isaacson’s second-to-none litigation practice.”

Currently, Hart serves as the co-chair of the Maine State Bar Association New Lawyers Section. Prior to that, he participated in the MSBA Leadership Academy, which works to develop future leaders among the bar in Maine. Aside from his law practice, Hart is currently on the Community Advisory Board for MainePublic, the state's public broadcasting entity. Hart also serves on the First Circuit local rules committee.
